

InSEA Publications: Different thinking...

Reviewer's report form

Please note that 'contribution' refers to either a visual essay or a chapter.

Title of contribution:
Overall impression of contribution (mark an 'x' [or n/a] to indicate your assessment of each item).	Excellent	Good	Fair	Poor
The title is effective: reflects the content appropriately
The author shows a sound knowledge of the relevant literature and previous research on the topic.
Topic is relevant, timely and appropriate to the publication and the mission of InSEA
Theory, methods and /or procedures are clear, grounded in appropriate and current scholarship
The manuscript is well organised, clearly written and free of grammatical and spelling errors.
The style is direct, clear and effective (even if personal).
Any images, figures and quotations used are well integrated with the text.
The author makes use of appropriate sources and all sources are clearly referenced using APA conventions
The contribution offers new or different perspectives whilst contributing to the development of the subject
The contribution is a good fit with the profile of InSEA.
Accept without any change	Accept after minor revision	Accept after major revision	Decline
Please offer comments to support your decision and that may be helpful to author(s). Feel free to provide as much additional feedback as you like - note that your comments may be passed to the author(s)

