These images were found abandoned and covered with dust.
In an attempt to locate the owner(s), multiple emails were sent to the Museum of Modern Art in New York City, USA since the exhibition originated with this institution.

Research indicates that it was a traveling exhibition in the USA in the mid-1950s but there is very limited information available.

It is hoped that some might recognize part of the exhibition and contact

Dr. Steve Willis

Department of Art and Design

Missouri State University

for further research and exhibition possibilities.

A note of gratitude to Jessica Kehl, Missouri State University, Springfield, MO USA for painstakingly documenting each image.
